

We recently heard from the town of Millbury (who owns the dam and water rights) that they have opened the outlet dam and are letting water out to fill the ponds downstream. It is expected that the lake level may drop 3" - 5" inches overall.

Please be aware that this may affect your docks, boat lifts, and or navigation of underwater obstacles while boating!

Hopefully mother nature can provide some rain to bring the lake levels back up..

LSWA